

PROJECT MANAGEMENT CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE

A.J. CLARK SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING
Civil & Environmental Engineering Department

June 9-10, 2014 — Register Today

PROJECT MANAGEMENT SYMPOSIUM

Academically Rigorous and Practically Applied: For two days, join project managers from the Baltimore-Washington metro area and abroad for DC's premier academic project management symposium. Share experiences, make connections, and learn the best project management practices at the University of Maryland and PMI Silver Spring Chapter's First Annual Project Management Symposium.

Sponsorship opportunities available at: www.pmissc.org.

Two-Day Registration

- $350 PMI Members
- $420 Non-members

One-Day Registration

- $200 PMI Members
- $245 Non-members

Register today. Prices increase after April 1st

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Ron Taylor

Principal and Founder, Ron Taylor Group

Karen Durham-Aguilera

Director of Contingency Operations and Office of Homeland Security, Headquarters, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers

Regina McElroy

Director, Office of Innovative Program Delivery
Federal Highway Administration

Mladen Radujkovic

President, International Project Management Association (IPMA)

Gregory Balestrero

Strategic Advisor, Corporate Consciousness, ILL

Brian McKeon

Senior Vice President, Booz Allen Hamilton, Army Market

Melinda Peters

Administrator, Maryland State Highway Administration

REGISTER ONLINE

www.pmissc.org

LOCATION

University of Maryland
Adele H. Stamp Student Union

SESSION TOPICS

Choose to focus on your interest areas only, or explore sessions in:

- Disaster Management
- Infrastructure Renewal
- Human Factors
- Sustainability
- Case Studies and Lessons Learned
- IT & Web Services
- Global Project Management & PMO
- Cost & Risk
- Government Project Management
- Innovative Financing
- Agile Project Management
- Schedule Management
- Earned Value Management
- Project Procurement
- Public Private Partnership

EARN PDUs

Earn professional development units toward maintaining your PMI credential. Earn up to 15 PDUs.

WWW.PMISSC.ORG

